Route description:

From the Vernant car park, after crossing the road near the Lac chairlift, head towards "l'Airon". This is a very easy balcony walk through the Corbalanche woods, with virtually no climbing. At the end of the woods, there is a beautiful view of the Aravis mountains and the Arve valley. You then come to a mountain pasture for grazing herds of cows and goats before the lake finally comes into view. Take the same route back.

Viewpoints to discover:

Views of the Aravis mountains and the Arve valley. Lac de l'Airon: just 2 hectares in size, this small, high-altitude lake is located at an altitude of 1,500 metres and is home to a mountain farm.

Guidelines :

Remember:

- Check the weather forecast just before you set off.
- Tell someone close to you where you are going and when you should be back.
- Find out if the route is in good condition and its difficulty level.

Advice:

- Respect the environment; please take your rubbish with you.
- Follow the marked routes; do not take private trails.
